

2022 LULING LIVESTOCK SHOW & PREMIUM MARKET SALE

OFFICIAL GENERAL RULES & REGULATIONS

NOTICE: ALL EXHIBITORS ARE CAUTIONED TO READ CAREFULLY THE FOLLOWING RULES AND REGULATIONS.

The Luling Livestock Show Association reserves to its Officers and Board of Directors the final and absolute right to interpret these rules and regulations and arbitrarily settle and determine all matters, questions and differences in regard thereto or otherwise arising out of, in connection with, or incident to the show.

Any person who violates any of the general or special rules as published in this document will forfeit all privileges, prizes and premiums won.

The Luling Livestock Show Association will in no case be responsible for any loss, injury and/or damage that may occur during the show.

The following rules and regulations have been adopted by the Board of Directors:

1. The show will open January 21, 2022, at 1:00 p.m.
2. Requirements for all exhibitors and show ring helpers:
  - A. Attend public school in Luling Independent School District, or must reside within the Luling Independent School District boundaries,
  - B. Meet grade requirements as mandated by U.I.L,
  - C. Be a member in good standing of Luling FFA Chapter or Luling 4-H Club.
3. FFA and 4-H Club Advisors shall provide the Board of Directors with verification of eligibility.
4. Animals that are not registered will not be allowed on stock show premises and shall be removed.
5. Entries must be bona fide property of the exhibitor and in the exhibitor's possession at the time of registration/validation; entry must be groomed and cared for by the exhibitor. All projects must be housed within Caldwell County, Texas. The show board reserves the right to verify.
6. Completed entry forms must be submitted at time of registration and must be signed by a parent/legal guardian and the appropriate club advisor.
7. There will be a $20.00 entry fee on all animal project entries, which will be paid at the time of registration/validation.
8. The Division Superintendents will determine weight divisions and have the right to combine or add classes as deemed necessary.

9. Exhibitors are expected to be well groomed, courteous, good sportsmen and show leadership always. Any exhibitor, either in person or through his parent, guardian, or agent, interferes with, coerces, or shows disrespect for another shall be grounds for the removal of the exhibitor and their project(s).
10. Exhibitors are required to be present with their entries for judging and sale.
11. All market and breeding entries must be registered and/or validated. Market entries must be ear tagged, tattooed or wing banded by Stock Show Board. In the event a Luling show tag, tattoo or band is lost, an official show Director must be notified immediately for proper replacement. Major show tags are acceptable, but Luling tag must be retained for verification purposes. Failure to produce Luling tag at weigh-in will result in dismissal of the animal.
12. Market entries cannot be shown in breeding division, and breeding entries cannot be shown in market division.
13. Animals that cannot be controlled by the exhibitor will not be allowed to enter the ring and will not compete or be sold.
14. Only exhibitors, the official judge and assistants and official show attendants will be allowed in the judging/show ring.
15. Trash must be removed from stalls by exhibitors. A $50.00 fine will be assessed for not cleaning animal areas. (does not pertain to shavings)
16. No exhibits will be released or loaded from the Stock Show grounds until the premium Market Sale is complete.
17. Pens will be assigned at weigh-in by show officials. Pens will not be reserved or promised.
18. Entries will be presented for weigh-in on the official scale from 1-5 p.m. on Friday, January 21, 2022. Only one (1) market entry per exhibitor, per species will be weighed, and will be the official weight. No re-weighs or variances. Alternate animals and breeding animals will not be weighed. Person(s) presenting animals for weigh-in must be able to handle their animals while being unloaded.
19. Animals left in the stock show area after 8:00p.m. on Saturday become the property of the Stock Show Board.
20. NO clipping of animals on show premises. Projects may be washed in areas designated by show officials.
21. Grooming boxes and/or equipment must be kept in the animal(s) immediate area.
22. Exhibitors and their animals may be disqualified if foreign substance rules are broken.
23. Show premises will be locked at 9:00p.m. Friday night. Gates will open at 5:00a.m. Saturday morning. Security will be provided.
24. ALL violations must be immediately reported to the official division superintendent and the Stock Show President.

25. PROTESTS: Protests must be presented in writing to the protest panel within 24 hours after the show to the division superintendent of the class in which the animal or exhibitor in question is entered. The written protest must be accompanied by a $50.00 cash deposit (each complaint) which will be forfeited if the protest is found invalid. The protest panel will consist of only the current Board of Directors, the division superintendents of the Luling Stock Show, FFA advisor and County Extension Agent. This meeting will be closed to all others.
